Further to the fact that we did not receive the invitation to correct defects, form PCT/IPEA/440, other reason are valid to oblige E.P.O. to accept the demand for examination.

The PCT Articles and Regulation valid for the present application are not the articles and regulation amended on 01.01.2004.

The new art. 22(1) PCT ~~does not~~ apply for this case. and not new article Rule 54 bis.

Before this new art. 22(1) having effect on 01.02.2003 and before the new regulation having effect from 01.01.2004, no time limit did exist for requesting International

Preliminary Examination if applicant was not interested in extending the 20(21) months time limits term to 30(31) months for the States having filed a notification of incompatibility to Art. 22(1) PCT as valid from 01.02.2003.

For this reason the demand has to be accepted by E.P.O. as I.P.E.A. .

Sincerely

Giorgio A. Karaghiosoff
